The Membership Committee of the Seattle Nightlife and Music Association shall approve all potential members.

The Seattle Nightlife and Music Association is a 501(c)(6) trade association and membership fees may be tax deductible as a business expense.

Payment of dues and other fees to SNMA may be deductible by members as ordinary and necessary business expenses, except any amount of membership dues used for lobbying expenses, pursuant to H.R. 2246, the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Action of 1993.

SNMA estimates that 25% of all membership dues paid to SNMA during 2007 & 2008 will be for lobbying expenses, and thus 25% of membership dues pad are not deductible as ordinary and necessary business expenses.
